

NORWICH UNIVERSITY™

Expect Challenge. Achieve Distinction.

Norwich University Media Availability

Norwich University is pleased to host guest speakers and presenters on campus to enhance our academic reputation and provide life-long learning opportunities for our community. We want to be clear about your expectations and permissions for the promotion of your visit. The below form allows you to specify what promotional activities you are comfortable engaging in during your time on campus.

Name of Presenter:

Date(s) of Visit:

Hosting Department/School:

If this event is free and open to the public, Norwich University may promote this event to the news media and to various audiences in the local community or region. I consent to be available for interviews with on- or off-campus media while I am on campus.

Yes No

I consent to have the news media present for my lecture/event/presentation.

Yes No

I consent to be available for phone or video interviews before the lecture. (Schedule dependent.)

Yes No

I understand that the lecture may be live streamed online for students and for the public. I consent to this live streaming.

Yes No

I understand that the lecture may be recorded and/or photographed by NU and/or news media and made available to Norwich students and the public via the news and/or university website and social media channels. I consent to this recording and photography.

Yes No

I understand that social media is a tool that Norwich University uses to connect to our network of online and on-campus students, prospective students, NU parents, alumni and friends across the globe. We may be sharing and promoting the lecture before, during, and after the event on our social media platforms through sharing of photos, video and live tweeting. I consent to this sharing.

Yes No

Norwich may wish to tag you, tweet at you, or otherwise engage with you to keep the conversation going and introduce you to our students, fans, and followers. Please provide:

Presenter's Social Media Channels:

Twitter @

Facebook

Instagram @

LinkedIn

Other

Signed:

Date:

Upon completion, you must return this signed form to the Norwich University Office of Communications, ocstaff@norwich.edu